Department Of Corrections (Institutional) Sentencing Alternatives

Program	Shock Incarceration	Institutional	Sex Offender
	Program	Treatment Center	Assessment Unit
Statute	559.115 RSMo	559.115 RSMo	559.115 RSMo
Description	Program emphasis on	Highly structured treatment	An intensive assessment
	general lifeskills, sub-	program with emphasis on	program for sex offenders stance abuse education,	criminality,life skills, relapse	that provides a complete vocational guidance and	prevention, substance abuse	psychological assessment
	the development of an	treatment and community	to determine an offender's appropriate community	home plan development.	extent of psychopathology, based home plan.		risk to reoffend and amen-
Program			ability to treatment. Offers
Criteria	Male or female	Male or female	basic relapse prevention
		Must have an active substance	education.
	Offenders convicted	problem and failed attempts in of Murder II, Forcible or	community treatment.	Males only Statutory Rape, Forcible
	or Statutory Sodomy,	Offenders convicted	No Alford Plea or pending
	Child Molestation I (B	of Murder II, Forcible or	appeal
	Felony), Abuse of a Child	Statutory Rape, Forcible (A Felony), or a predatory	or Statutory Sodomy,	Offenders convicted of sex offender cannot be	Child Molestation I (B	Murder II, Forcible or sentenced pursuant to	Felony), Abuse of a Child	Statutory Rape, Forcible or 559.115.	(A Felony), or a predatory	Statutory Sodomy, Child
		sex offender cannot be	Molestation I (B felony), Serious mental/physical	sentenced pursuant to	Abuse of a Child (A Felony)
	health problems which	559.115.	or a predatory sex offender prevent an offender		cannot be sentenced from benefitting from this	Male offenders with	pursuant to 559.115.
	program may preclude	documented, diagnosed eligibility.	mental health and substance abuse issues should be	Serious mental or physical Offenders are housed in	referred to the	health problems which general population.	Co-Occurring Disorders	prevent an offender from Program, pursuant to	benefitting from treatment
		RSMo 559.115.	may preclude eligibility.
	No sex offenders	No sex offenders	A PSI must be completed.
Judicial		Reservations Required
Process	Reservations Required	Sentencing pursuant to	After PSI complete, senten-
	Sentencing pursuant to	RSMo 559.115 with	cing pursuant to RSMo 559.
	RSMo 559.115	recommendation for	115 with recommendation for (no specific program	Institutional Treatment	Sex Offender Assessment recommendation needed)	Center (ITC).	Unit (SOAU).

Department Of Corrections (Institutional) Sentencing Alternatives (continued)

Program	MO Post Conviction	Long Term Drug
	Drug Program	Program
Statute	217.785 RSMo	217.362 RSMo
Description	Substance abuse program	Highly structured, long with two phases.	term therapeutic comm-
	Phase I is within the	unity treatment program community and Phase II is	for serious substance an Institutional Treatment	abusers. Uses self and Center.	mutual help, peer pressure and role modeling
Program		to achieve recovery
Criteria	Male or female	goal.
	First time offender	Literate male or female
	Offense is violation of	Documented substance
	RSMo 195 OR substance	addiction abuse was a precipitating factor in the commission	The offender must be of the offense	found to be a chronic non-violent offender.
	Active addiction to	(must have at least THREE controlled substance(s)	non-violent felony findings of (Alcohol only not eligible)	guilt.) A felony SIS probation is considered a finding Serious mental or physical	of guilt.
	health problems which prevent an offender from	No present sex offenders.
	benefitting from treatment	Will take prior sex offenders
	may preclude eligibility	if MOSOP was completed.
	INTO PHASE II.
		Offense must be
	No sex offenders in	statutorily eligible
	PHASE II.	for probation.
Judicial	Order for SIS or SES prob-	Reservations Required
Process	ation with a special condit-	Sentence of at least a total ion for Post-Conviction	of 4 years pursuant to RSMo
	Treatment RSMo 217.785.	217.362 with recommended
	MUST SPECIFY EITHER	placement in the Long Term
	PHASE I OR PHASE II.	Substance Abuse Program.

In addition to supervision alternatives provided by the Missouri Department of Corrections, there may be local programs available in particular counties or court circuits.